

HY-300S Flow Wrap Machine

This machine is designed on basis of multi-function pillow packing machine and is suitable for packing warm cooling gel and similar product packaging design and development of products of domestic initiation.

This machine sets the bag, pack the product, prints the batch number, four side seals, easy open, cuts off and the packing finished product transportation all completes in one time. The machine adopts man-machine interface, with about automatic correction, before and after the photoelectric version, six groups of temperature control, sealing pressure device to ensure product sealing effect.

Technical Data

| Model                                      | HY-300S                              |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| Max packing size                           | 330x160mm                            |
| capacity(according to its material to fix) | 15-45 bags/min                       |
| Function                                   | Filling, sealing, counting and other |
| Total power                                | 380v 50hz 4.5kw                      |
| Overall dimensions(L x W x H)              | 1900x790x1700mm                      |
| Weight                                     | 900kg                                |