

Seafood Rigid Thermoformer Machine

The Utien DZL thermoforming packaging line is designed for maximum output and used in food industry frequently. The new model of thermoformer redefined high durability and high work efficiency.

Features:

- High efficiency, at least 10000 packages per day.
- Safe and easy to operate with PLC touch screen operating system.
- Outstanding packaging with customized forming mold and functions for automated packaging.
- Provide full after-sale service, engineers are able to service overseas.

Seafood Pack:

Simple seafood rigid package shows the best quality meat. And makes it easy to choose. The information strap or sticker on top of the package can trace down the source of this meat. Gas flush optional for this case to prolong the shelf life of fresh meat. Tray chamber can be totally customized to the shape of the meat which will give a better hold for the meat.

Thermoforming Technology:

Advanced thermoforming technology can increase packaging production speed and package quality. It use compressed air and vacuuty. It help heated film form into different shapes. The bottom mold is totally customizable.