

Automatic Mustard Oil Pouch Filling Packing Machine LGP-12

Automatic mustard oil filling machine is a very important professional filling machine in our company. This machine is the leading seller in our company's filling machine, and the customers like it very much. Mustard oil pouch packing machine all use an imported pump. The use of this pump greatly enhances the non-dripping and tail suction function of the machine, which ensures the sealing of the package. Mustard oil packing machine are widely used in medicine, chemical industry and food field, such as oil, milk and other liquid sealed packaging.

Functions And Features

1. Mustard oil pouch packing machine is equipped with a color touch screen display device. The use of the touch screen makes the operation more convenient and easier to operate.
2. The machine has perfect reputation and good quality guarantee, which can realize the rapid and stable production of the machine, reduce the production of defective products and improve the production efficiency.
3. Mustard oil packing machine can also form a packaging system with other equipment, which can be used in the production line and can greatly improve the production efficiency.
4. The whole body of this machine is made of stainless steel. The use of these materials makes cleaning easier.
5. The machine adopts high-quality parts imported from the original package. The use of these parts can make the machine run more smoothly and more durable.
6. Automatic mustard oil filling machine is equipped with automatic detection function, which can effectively reduce the waste of materials and save production costs.
7. This machine adopts high-quality equipment, which can make it more sealing and more convenient to preserve products.

Technical Data:

Model	LGP-12
Filling quotas	12(can be customized)
Bottle Height	120-330mm
Filling Range	150-5000 ml
Filling accuracy	±1%
Capacity	300-1300 bottles/h
Weight	400 kg
Filling capacity	1000-10000 mm