

BAG Control

Bags Inspection Machine

The BAG CONTROL Series of fully automated inspection machines are specially developed to process IV bags both for particles and leakages.

They represent the ideal solution to comply with GMP requirements, and to ensure that parenteral products are essentially free of foreign particles.

The handling and transport system is designed in a way to prevent damages to the containers.

The BAG CONTROL Series can also be equipped and retrofitted with a number of inspection stations for various cosmetic checks.

